Probate Court to-day.

Insolvency Court to-morrow.

Judge Wilson was at the Hill last Tuesday.

Clark of Curtis Austin visited Canton last week.

Ransom's stage used wheels for the first time Wednesday.

E. C. Merrill, of South Paris, was at the Hill Thursday.

By Marshall Bishop, of Buckfield, was at Paris last Friday.

Dr. G. W. Brown, of Norway, was at the Hill Thursday.

Hon. John P. Swaney, of Canton, was at the Hill last week.

Deputy Sheriff Stone, of South Paris, was at the Hill Saturday.

The land has voted to meet regularly on Sunday evening hereafter.

Ex-County Commissioner Tuell, of West Warren, was in town last week.

The Selectmen have appointed as a board of health, Drs. Ransom, Yates and Morse.

W. W. Dunham, of North Paris, was in this village last week with some excellent honey and maple syrup.

Our sidewalks are well started for the coming winter. Some of the shovellers went through pretty deep drifts, too.

Sarah Ellen, widow of the late Col. Frederick E. Shaw, of Brewer, formerly of this village, has been granted a pension.

Charles Ransom offers his heavy building material, such as, all carriages, horses and equipment for sale. See advertisement in another column.

The band will play in the hand stand in the forenoon of Fast Day, unless the snow should be so deep that they can not reach the stand, or the weather so cold that the instruments freeze up.

In spite of the bad travelling last Monday evening, there was quite a large gathering at the circle, the largest for some time—a number coming from South Paris and Norway. A good time, as usual.

The next Ladies' Circle of the Universalist Society will be held at Academy Hall, Monday evening, April 25. Come all and help to make the session a success. Social, musical, and athletic, usual treat. Dancing free.

Geo. Cole has purchased the mill and land formerly occupied by the Paris Mfg. Co. This is a stroke in the right direction. Mr. Cole understands milling and machinery well, and we have hope to see the mill in another column.

About two weeks ago a man was rejected from the mill, and after a sentence of thirty days, imposed by Judge Whitman of the Norway Municipal Court, for larceny. He appeared in these proceedings under the name of Brown, though it came out that he had previously borne a different name. Immediately after his discharge he went to Lewiston and secured employment there, calling himself by a new name. He is now wanted by Lewiston officers, having disappeared with $30 and an overcoat belonging to his employer.

Rev. J. E. Cochran, now of Moulton, Maine, formerly of Paris Hill, publishes in the Zion's Advocate, a very interesting tract, under the name of February 22, under which we make the following extracts:

MATHEW, BUREAU, Feb. 22, 1907.

We have been in business a little more than two months. The voyage from New York occupied only one day less than two months. The distance according to the ship's log was 10,000 miles.

Our readers know much about the beautiful island of Matheo, but after having read you cannot imagine half its beauty. The hills are covered with forests of oak and ash, the broad rivers, the islands, the white churches, the beautiful buildings, the beautiful trees, make up a picture of great loveliness.

Our island is the best of its kind in the world. It is the only island in the world where you can see the falling of a snow mountain. There are great many beautiful spots for picnicking. We have a beautiful view of the sea from our island. The English are great road makers. Of course good roads are only seen in large towns or cities.

THE POSTAL CARD BRIGADE.

WEST BETHEL.

Spring came quite suddenly with showers and thunder on Saturday.

Oscar Frost has moved here from South Bethel, and works for A. S. Bean.

Miss Flora J. Wheeler went back to her school in Gorham, N. H., Saturday. She is to be an excellent teacher.

Many fruit trees have been badly injured by the snow.

Very little maple sugar has been made here this spring.

Eugene A. Briggs has gone to Gilead to work for a few weeks.

The shingling is still quite good from the place to Mason and Albany.

Fred L. Merrill, of South Paris, was in town last week delivering picture frames. He is liked by all who have dealings with him.

ALBANY.

Our roads are so demoralized that traveling is rather hazardous. If a man is seen on the road it is supposed that he means business.

The productions of your able and worthy correspondent, L. D., are read with much interest, but not only gives lists of news but articles of value, which others would follow his example. My first interview with him was of quite recent date, and yet he seemed like an old-time friend. There seems to be a "follow me" among the P. C. B.'s with me might come together and have a "hand-shaking."

The Thomas Barrows house at Hunt's Corner is being repaired for the occupancy of Franklin Cross.

Mrs. John Grover has been improving, but to-day had a relapse, and it seems doubtful how it will turn out with her. Mr. Grover wishes to sell his "stand," which is quite convenient for a small family; he offers it at a good bargain.

The Congregational Society are about treating their church edifice to a coat of paint.

ROXBURY.

Spring has come! It was ushered in on Saturday with thunder and lightning. The snow has melted very fast, so that those who predicted an early spring—when all the indications were against them—can rejoice in their wisdom.

A. A. Huston is some better, but is yet in poor health.

John Reed has bought a yearling Holstein cow at a high price.

B. A. Knapp has a very fine yearling colt from his Ethan Allen mare.

S. M. Locke has sold his fine calves for a good price. It pays to raise good stock.
